MISS MAVRIK

MISS MAVRIK

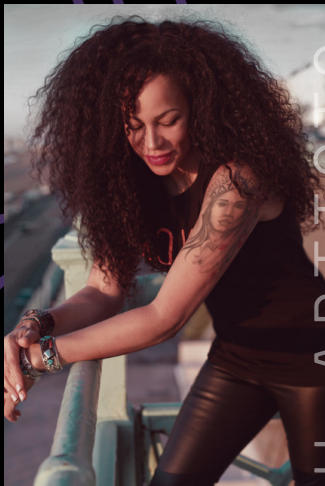

Manchester born Miss Mavrik is an international DJ and producer. With over 15 years experience in the field, she has played at parties in all four corners of the world and completed several tours across Asia, Russia, Europe and South America. Along the way, Mavrik has performed in some of the globe's most renowned clubs including Pacha (ES) ADE (NL) Miami WMC (US) Hideout & Outlook Festivals (HR) Fabric, Ministry of Sound and The Egg. (UK)

As a producer, Mavrik has released on top tier labels, such as Baroque, Toolroom, Lowbit, Prosaic, Strangers in Paradise and Jango. Her stand out track "Love Has Left Us" received strong support from the likes of Eric Murrillo, Amine Edge and Richie Hawtin, while it entered the UK Music Week Chart as the highest new entry at No.5. She also branched out to form a female Dj duo with DJ Wanda under the alias 'Priism', which saw her release two EP's on Kevin Saunderson's KMS Records.

Miss Mavrik is resourceful in performance with her main styles being house, melodic house and progressive. Her strong and energetic sound was given further exposure through hosting various UK underground radio shows with a regular monthly mix on the largest dance station in Italy, M20 Radio Rome.

Whether playing alongside leading artists like Fedde Le Grand or hosting her own club night, Rewind, Mavrik is an energised performer who is always pushing boundaries. Look out for her new release "Drum Circle" in the pipeline for the start of 2023.
